Take those first steps to friendship and fun at Indian Head Camp

Dream Week

July 24 - 27, 2010

Shelley & David Tager,
Owners/Directors
Joel Rutkowski,
Director
Winter (914) 345-2155
Summer (570) 224-4111

We're delighted to introduce you to DREAM WEEK. Dream Week is specifically designed to help your child bridge the gap between home and the overnight summer camp experience. While we expose children to a broad spectrum of summer activities, our mission centers around making youngsters feel comfortable about their first independent group living experience.

Dream Week takes place during Indian Head's regular camping season. Dream Week campers live in the beautifully equipped cabins of our oldest Indian Head campers who will be on an extended out-of-camp trip. Though the program is under our direction, specially trained, full time Indian Head counselors live, eat and participate with our Dream Weekers in all aspects of camp life and activities.

As you review this information, please bear in mind that DREAM WEEK registration is limited to 20 boys and 20 girls, entering second, third or fourth grade. We purposely hold enrollment so each child experiences the very best Indian Head has to offer on a personal level.

Join us as we take the first step with your son or daughter to the joys and accomplishments of living away from home for the first time. We hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

Shelley & David Tager

OUR PROGRAM centers around every child gaining a sense of independence and confidence by learning to give and take in a structured, exciting, yet relaxed setting. Whether on the baseball field, canoeing on the lake, or toasting marshmallows around a campfire, children in Dream Week learn by doing and feel a great sense of accomplishment as they become comfortable in - and begin to conquer - a new environment.
